A photograph of a woman with long brown hair, seen from the back, sitting in a wheelchair. She is wearing a light-colored blazer and is gesturing with her hands while talking to two people seated at a table in the background. The man has dark curly hair and is holding a red folder. The woman has dark hair tied back and is wearing glasses. They are in a bright room with large windows. A large, semi-transparent teal shape is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing the table of contents.

Company Profile

AndCare (Guangdong) Intelligent Technology Co., Ltd., based in Shunde, Guangdong, is a forward-thinking designer and manufacturer of innovative rehabilitation and medical equipment. Guided by our brand philosophy—"Love And Care, For You!"—we are dedicated to delivering smarter and more human-centered mobility solutions to users worldwide.

What sets us apart from traditional manufacturers is our commitment to innovation. Led by a highly experienced team of engineers, we integrate cutting-edge design with advanced ergonomics to continuously redefine and enhance products for the elderly and individuals with disabilities—empowering them with greater independence and comfort.

With fully integrated in-house capabilities, including mold making, injection molding, metal fabrication, and assembly workshops, we control the entire production process from concept to completion. This vertical integration has enabled us to pioneer original designs with independent intellectual property rights, such as the "4D Adjustable Headrest," "Phased Stroke Rehabilitation Walker," and "Wheelchair Front Fork Suspension System"—all of which have earned widespread praise from end-users both at home and abroad.

Our product portfolio includes electric wheelchairs, mobility scooters, manual wheelchairs, crutches, and bath chairs. Backed by over 40 international and Chinese patents, we offer a comprehensive range of distinctive products sold across dozens of countries and regions worldwide. We specialize in supporting distributors, e-commerce sellers, and Amazon vendors with tailored solutions that help expand market reach—delivering innovation, variety, reliability, and competitive value.

Thank you for considering AndCare as your trusted partner. We remain committed to bringing you the latest products and exceptional service as we grow together—serving customers around the world with care and dedication.
